

rendered by the charitable organization, if not sold or rendered in connection with a solicitation.

(d) "Federated fund-raising organization" means a federation of independent charitable organizations which have voluntarily joined together, including but not limited to a united fund or community chest, for the purpose of raising and distributing money for and among themselves and where membership in the federation does not confer operating authority and control of the individual charitable organizations upon the federation.

(e) "Parent organization" means that part of a charitable organization which coordinates, supervises, or exercises control over one or more chapters, branches or affiliates in the State.

(f) "Person" includes any individual, organization, trust, FUND, foundation, group, association, partnership, corporation, society, or any combination of them.

(g) "Fund-raising counsel" means any person who for a fee under a written agreement with a charitable organization plans, manages, advises or acts as a consultant in connection with a fund-raising drive, event, or campaign, including the preparation of oral or written solicitations but who does not directly solicit or receive contributions from the public as a part of the services offered to a charitable organization. The following persons shall not be deemed to be fund-raising counsel by reason of the activities listed:

(1) An attorney who renders professional legal advice;

(2) An attorney, investment counselor, or banker who advises a client or customer to contribute to a charitable organization; and

(3) A bona fide salaried officer or employee of a charitable organization which maintains a permanent office in the State.

(h) "Professional solicitor" means a person who, (1) for a financial consideration solicits or receives contributions for, or on behalf of, a charitable organization, either personally or through agents or employees specifically employed for that purpose, or (2) who plans, conducts, manages, carries on, advises, or acts as a consultant to a charitable organization in connection with the solicitation of contributions but does not qualify as fund-raising counsel. The following persons shall not be deemed to be professional solicitors by reason of the activities listed:

(1) An attorney, investment counselor, or banker who advises a client or customer to contribute to a charitable organization, if he does not otherwise perform the functions of a fund-raising counsel or a solicitor; or
