and (d) of this section, and the exceptions for certain units of the State government, such as the Maryland Automobile Insurance Fund.

In the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the phrase "of the State government" is added to clarify the scope of this section.

In subsection (a)(1) of this section, the duty to "pay into the State Treasury" is substituted for the former duty to "pay to the Treasurer", to reflect that, in practice, a unit pays money into the Treasury by depositing the money with a depositary. This substitution conforms to other provisions of the Code that require a unit to pay money into, e.g., the General Fund of the State.

In subsection (b)(2) of this section, the reference to "an account that the Comptroller designates" is substituted for the former reference to "a special account", for clarity.

In subsection (d)(3) and (4) of this section, the defined term "financial institution" is substituted for the former enumeration "bank ... or building and loan associations", for brevity and conformity.

The fourth and fifth clauses of the first sentence of former Art. 41, § 198, which allowed use of the money and provided for reversion as provided by "law", are deleted as unnecessary in light of Title 7, Subtitles 2 and 3 of this article.

As to specific provisions for funds of residents of certain related institutions, see HG § 19-346.

As to the use of the word "unit", see the General Revisor's Note to this article.
