

(2) THE SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS NEED NOT INCLUDE ANY OTHER INFORMATION ABOUT THE APPROPRIATION UNDER THIS SECTION.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from the former second and fourth sentences of ED § 13-114(b) and the former second sentence of (c).

Defined terms: "Includes"; "including" § 1-101

7-112. CONFORMITY WITH STATUTES.

(A) GENERALLY REQUIRED.

UNLESS SPECIFICALLY AUTHORIZED BY LAW, THE GOVERNOR MAY NOT SUBMIT A BUDGET BILL THAT CHANGES A STATE STATUTE.

(B) SALARIES.

SUBJECT TO THE LIMITATIONS IN THE MARYLAND CONSTITUTION, A STATUTE THAT SETS A SALARY IS SUPERSEDED BY PASSAGE OF A BUDGET BILL THAT ALTERS THE SALARY.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 15A, §§ 13 and 21A.

In subsections (a) and (b) of this section, the word "statute" is substituted for the former references to "the language or provisions of this Code or of other statutory law", "any act of the General Assembly", and "such act", for consistency and brevity.

In subsection (a) of this section, the former, specific reference to the "Secretary" is deleted as surplusage.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to "supplements thereto" is deleted as surplusage, since, on submission, a supplemental budget amendment becomes part of the budget bill and since retaining the former reference here could suggest that the absence of a specific reference to a supplemental budget amendment in another provision means that an amendment is not included.

In subsection (b) of this section, reference to the statute being "superseded" is substituted for the former statement that the budget bill "shall operate as an amendment to such act", to avoid the suggestion that the statute changes.

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the former limitation "to the extent of such increase or
