

the words "or him". Thus, the antecedent for the word "him" became "Governor" rather than "officer".

Subsection (b)(3) of this section is revised to clarify that an officer or unit has the power to withdraw a proposed amended schedule.

In subsection (e)(2)(ii) of this section, the former references to "rules" and "regulations" are deleted as unnecessary in light of the broad reference to "law".

In subsection (e)(2)(iii) of this section, the former reference to a "natural or other disaster" is deleted as unnecessary in light of the reference to an "emergency declared by the Governor".

In subsection (f)(2) of this section, the phrase "since the last session" is added to clarify the scope of the report.

The fourth sentence of former Art. 15A, § 8(e), which stated that an amended schedule could be amended again, is deleted as surplusage in light of the word "whenever" in subsection (b)(1) of this section.

The third clause of former Art. 15A, § 8(f), which stated that the State budget and its supporting documents "specify in detail the salaries of all personnel", is deleted as surplusage in light of the substantive requirement of § 7-109 of this title.

The Commission to Revise the Annotated Code notes, for the consideration of the General Assembly, that subsection (d) of this section tries to reconcile the seemingly inconsistent requirements of former Art. 15A, §§ 8(f) and 20(d) and present Art. 64A, § 27 of the Code and to state those requirements clearly.

Thus, in subsection (d)(1) of this section, the reference to an "amendment under this section" is substituted for the former, broad reference to "[a] budget amendment", to restrict the scope of this limitation. This substitution reflects that former Art. 15A, § 8(d) and (e) permitted a budget amendment of the Governor to be carried out "subject to the provisions of Art. 15A, § 8", but that former § 8(b) through (c-1) did not state a similar limitation for amendments for the Legislative Branch. Similarly, in subsection (e)(1) of this section, the reference to "an amendment under this section" is substituted for the former reference to "[a]n amended schedule". This substitution reflects that the limitation in subsection (e)(1) of this section applies to an appropriation to a unit of the Executive Branch.
