

March Court 1778

This Court here discharges the same recognizance Francis Collins at the same time as for his recognizance as Surety for the said John Murphree in the sum of Twenty pounds Sterl for ap. & good behav. of y<sup>e</sup> said John as ap. The same recognizance is by this Court here discharged

His Majesty's - - - recognizance taken by W. William Gott one of the Justices of this Court. The said John John Underhill Jun<sup>r</sup> Underhill Jun<sup>r</sup> in his proper person appears in Court and prays that his fathers recognizance for his ap. to this Court may be discharged. ordered by this Court here that the ap. John Underhill Sen<sup>r</sup> recognizance for his ap. Son be discharged

John Underhill Sen<sup>r</sup> the thirteenth day of March Instant entered into recognizance in the sum of forty pounds Sterl for ap. of John Underhill Jun<sup>r</sup> to his Co. to answer what should be objected ag. him on acc<sup>t</sup> of a certain Elizth Sowden charging him with begitting her with Child and good behav. in the mean time This Court having no intelligence that there was any breach made by the ap. John Underhill Jun<sup>r</sup> on account of the recognizance ap. This Court here discharges the same recognizance

His Majesty's recognizance taken by M<sup>r</sup>. James Harris one of the Justices.
The said Mary in her proper person appears to the Mary Jones same. ordered by the Court here that the said recognizance and her Sureties be discharged

Mary Jones ap. the sixth day of December last before the ap. Justice entered into recognizance in the sum of twenty pounds Sterl to be levied if she did not make her personal appearance at this Court and to answer into such things as should be objected ag. her on behalf of his said Majesty altho' Court there being no person that shows an Cause why the said recognizance should not be discharged. This Court here discharges the same

Benj<sup>n</sup>. Blackiston and Thomas Cowarding the same day last mentioned entered into recognizance in the sum of ten pounds Sterl each