

March Court 1715 173
Roberts and John Johnson his attys and Pleas in Reason as follows by

Which reasons being read and argued and matured deliberation being by the Court thereupon taken Therefore it is ~~ORDERED~~ by the Court here for this twenty fourth day of March Anno Domini one Thousand Seven hundred and fifteen That the Reasons aforesaid are good and sufficient in Law to Bar the ~~plea~~ ~~app~~ from maintaining his action ~~app~~ according to the verdict of the jurors ~~app~~ and that the same be wholly set aside and taken for nothing: And the ~~plea~~ by his atty ~~app~~ prays that he may have liberty to amend. his Deed and Consents that the Court will tax him with Cost on the same which is granted And that the said Thomas Browne pay to the ~~app~~ Debt the sum of fifty pounds of Tobacco Cost assessed by the Court for his omission in his said ~~app~~ and that he have liberty to amend the same. And that a Venory Issue a new returnable to the next Court and thereupon the same action is by this Court continued untill next Court His Majesty's Recogniz. at last August Court for William Smithers } appearance to then next Court the same and his Jurors. Recogniz. all Continued from Court to Court to this present