

March Court 1714

of Easter week hundred James Davis of Chester hundred John Ball of Longford Bay upper hundred William Johnson of Morgans Crook hundred Eleazar Blackston of Worton hundred who do all appear and say that they have nothing to offer

James Brewer sworn on his Majesty's behalf as an Evidence and sent to the Grand Jury

Court adjourns till to morrow morning Eight o'clock

April 6th Against moor
The Worshippful Mr. William P. Commys. J. sent
Mr. J. Long. Esq.
W. Lamb. Wilmer.

Yesterday minutes read and approved
Mr. William Comegys takes his place and sits on the Benches

William Gallaway Son of James Gallaway deceased. Is by this Court and his own Consent bound by Judgements till he comes to the age of twenty one year. to William Graves of this County. he being now of age of about three years to teach him of that Brick maker Bricklayer and such other trades of Mr Graves works at and also to be taught to read write and Cypher.
and so to be taught that when at age of 14 may be perfect in his trades as also to read in the Bible write a fair legible hand and to Cypher in all the rule perfect as far as multiplication and multiplication inclusive. as also the said William Graves now assumes to pay unto Roger Hales four Shillings and six pence that Roger Hales paid last Court for writing an Judgement which was not made use of as a sum to pay Thomas Skutter one hundred and fifty pounds of Tobacco Charge the said Thomas was at about the said Court before he was brought to Court — The said Judgement is acknowledged in open Court.

Mr. James Harris Mr. Michael Miller & Mr. William Blay they all take their places and sit on the Benches

His Majesty's Command was given to the Constable of Easter Week.
Rachel Duttre hundred the fifth day of November in the first year of his Majesty's George the second that he take