

March Court 1745

prays that he may have an Attly. to plead for him Ordered by the Court here that Mr. Thomas Bolens one of the Attlys of this Court that he appear for the said James. . . ordered by this Court this Court here that the said James give Surety for his appearance to next Court to answer the said Bill of Indictment.

James Meeks and Comes into Court and acknowledged himself indebted to his Majesty King George his heirs and Successors in the Sum of Ten pounds Sterling to be levied on his goods and Chattels Lands and Tenements Conditionally that if the said James shall not make his personal appearance at the next Court and to answer unto a Certain Bill of Indictment found against him for Chabitting with a Certain Mary Neale &c. where with the said James doth acknowledge himself to be therow. Content

Likewise Francis Meeks of this County Comes into Court and acknowledges himself indebted to his Majesty King George his heirs and Successors in the full and just Sum of Ten pounds Sterling to be levied on his goods and Chattels Lands and Tenements Conditionally that if the said James Meeks doth not make his personal appearance at the next Court and to answer as afo. where with he doth acknowledge himself to be therow. Content

His Majesty by The Grand Jury for this County having presented the said Mary for Chabitting w. a Certain James Meeks w. Mary Neale presentin was by the Clarke of the Indictments framed into a bill &c. ordered by this Court here that she be called to answer the same. . . after which she Comes into Court and appears to of same in her proper person. ordered by this Court here that the said Mary enter into Recognizance with Surety for her appearance to next Court. . . Mary Neale and Comes into Court and acknowledges herself indebted to his Majesty King George his heirs and Successors