

August Court 1717

Twenty four hours unless such person be Capable of giving his Voate for a delegate in said County or be by her retained as a Servant wherewith they acknowledge themselves to be Content

Laughlin Flynn of this County comes into Court as also John Moll and Jonathan Page both of this County Jurors for the said Laughlin) and they and every of them acknowledge themselves indebted to his Lord Ship his Heirs and Successors in the Summe of five hundred pounds of Tobacco for the said Laughlin's keeping a publick house of Entertainment in this County or ordinary as also they ~~and~~ And every of them do acknowledge themselves indebted to his said Lordship &c. in the Summe of Twenty pounds Sterling to be levied on their goods and Chattells Lands and Tenements Conditionally that if the said Laughlin in his said house of Entertainment or ordinary doth Entertain any freeman or loose person in his house above twenty four hours unless such person be Capable of giving his Voate for a delegate in said County or be by him retained as a Servant wherewith they acknowledge themselves therewith to be Content

William Stanvill Laughlin Kinn and Jonathan Page all of this County comes into Court and in their proper persons they and every of them acknowledge themselves indebted to his Lord Ship his Heirs and Successors in the Summe of five hundred pounds of Tobacco for the said William's keeping a publick house of Entertainment or ordinary in the Town of Chester at the Court house in said County as also they and every of them do acknowledge themselves indebted to his said Lordship &c. in the Summe of Twenty pounds Sterling to be levied on their goods and Chattells Lands and Tenements Conditionally that if the said William in his said house of Entertainment or ordinary doth Entertain any freeman or loose person in his house above twenty four hours (Court days excepted) unless such person be Capable of giving his Voate for a delegate in said County or be by him retained as a Servant wherewith they acknowledge themselves therewith to be Content