

provide. If the laws of a state prevent legislators from serving on the commission, six members shall be appointed and serve at the pleasure of the governor, unless the laws of the state otherwise provide. In addition to any other principles or requirements which a state may establish for the appointment and service of its members of the commission, the guiding principle for the composition of the membership on the commission from each party state shall be that the members representing such state shall, by virtue of their training, experience, knowledge or affiliations be in a position collectively to reflect broadly the interests of the state government, higher education, the state education system, local education, lay and professional, public and nonpublic educational leadership. Of those appointees, one shall be the head of a state agency or institution, designated by the governor, having responsibility for one or more programs of public education. In addition to the members of the commission representing the party states, there may be not to exceed ten nonvoting commissioners selected by the steering committee for terms of one year. Such commissioners shall represent leading national organizations of professional educators or persons concerned with educational administration.

25-103.

(e) The Council may consider all matters relating to:

(2) Recommendations of the [Educational] EDUCATION Commission of the States; and DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects two instances of the same misnomer in §§ 25-102 Article III(a) and 25-103(e)(2) of the Education Article.

The misnomers were contained in Ch. 22 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1978.

The misnomers were noted by the Computer Division of the Department of Legislative Reference and by the Michie Company.

Article - Estates and Trusts

13-301.

In this subtitle, unless the context otherwise requires:

(g) A "financial institution" is a bank, a federal savings and loan association, a savings institution chartered and supervised as a savings and loan or similar institution under federal law or the laws of a state or a federal credit union or a credit union chartered and supervised under the laws of a state; a "domestic financial institution" is one chartered and supervised under the laws of this [state] STATE or a bank chartered and supervised under federal law and having its principal office in this [state] STATE; an "insured financial