(2) Application of Schedule. The schedule of benefits which is in effect on the first day of an individual's benefit year shall be the schedule of benefits which shall apply to that individual throughout his benefit year.

(3) Weekly Benefits for Partial Unemployment. Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount plus allowance for dependents, less that part of the wages (if any) payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $35; provided that such amount of benefits, if not a multiple of $1.00, shall be rounded down to the next lower whole dollar.

(c) Each individual who is eligible to receive benefits for unemployment with respect to any week shall be paid with respect to such week an allowance for dependents of [three dollars] $4 for each of but not more than four of such individual's children, stepchildren, or legally adopted children, who at the beginning of the individual's current benefit year were being wholly or partially supported by such individual and were under sixteen years of age, but in no event shall such allowances be paid for more than the number of weeks of benefits allowable to the individual for total unemployment. Dependents' allowances shall be in addition to the unemployment benefits otherwise payable, provided that the total of such unemployment benefits and allowances for dependents shall not exceed the maximum weekly benefit amount in any one benefit week and further provided that no dependency allowance shall be payable with respect to any week unless an unemployment benefit is also payable with respect to such week. An individual's number of dependents shall be determined as of the day with respect to which he first files a valid claim for benefits in any benefit year, and shall be fixed
