

(a) The provisions of §§ 10-202 and 10-203 of this article apply to all sales by developers under this title. For the purposes of this article, a newly constructed dwelling unit means a newly constructed or newly converted condominium unit and its appurtenant undivided fee simple interest in the common areas.

(b) In addition to the implied warranties set forth in § 10-203 of this article there shall be an implied warranty on an individual unit from a developer to a unit owner. The warranty on an individual unit commences with the transfer of title to that unit and extends for a period of 1 year. The warranty shall provide:

(1) That the developer is responsible for correcting any defects in materials or workmanship in the construction of walls, ceilings, floors, and heating and air conditioning systems in the unit; and

(2) That the heating and any air conditioning systems have been installed in accordance with acceptable industry standards and:

(i) That the heating system is warranted to maintain a 70° (F) temperature inside with the outdoor temperature and winds at the design conditions established by Article 78, § 54-I of the Code ("Energy Conservation Building Standards Act"), or those established by the political subdivision as provided in Article 78, § 54-I; and

(ii) That the air conditioning system is warranted to maintain a 78° (F) temperature inside with the outdoor temperature at the design conditions established by Article 78, § 54-I of the Code ("Energy Conservation Building Standards Act"), or those established by the political subdivision as provided in Article 78, § 54-I.

(c) (1) In addition to the implied warranties set forth in § 10-203 of this article there shall be an implied warranty on common elements from a developer to the council of unit owners. The warranty shall apply to: the roof, foundation, external and supporting walls, mechanical, electrical, and plumbing systems, and other structural elements.

(2) The warranty shall provide that the developer is responsible for correcting any defect in materials or workmanship, and that the specified common elements are within acceptable industry standards in effect when the building was constructed.

(3) The warranty on common elements commences with the first transfer of title to a unit owner. The warranty of any common elements not completed at that time shall commence with the completion of that element or with its availability for use by all unit owners, whichever occurs later. The warranty extends for a period of 3 years.
