

{4-113-

{a}--A person may not knowingly employ any individual to work in any building, vehicle, or place in which food is manufactured, prepared, produced, packed, stored, collected, sold, distributed, or transported if the individual employed:

{1}--Has a communicable disease that may be transmitted by food; or

{2}--Is a carrier of a communicable disease that may be transmitted by food.

{b}--An individual may not knowingly work in any building, vehicle, or place in which food is manufactured, prepared, packed, stored, collected, sold, distributed, or transported if the individual:

{1}--Has a communicable disease that may be transmitted by food; or

{2}--Is a carrier of a communicable disease that may be transmitted by food.}

{4-114-

{a}--To enforce this subtitle, the Secretary or a representative of the Secretary, at any reasonable time, may enter and inspect any establishment or building in which food is manufactured, prepared, produced, packed, canned, frozen, stored, deposited, collected, sold, distributed, or transported.

{b}--A person may not:

{1}--Refuse to grant access to the Secretary or any representative of the Secretary if the Secretary or representative asks to enter an establishment or building under this section; or

{2}--Interfere with any inspection under this section.}

{4-115-

{a}--If the Secretary believes that a person is violating any provision of this subtitle or of a rule or regulation adopted under this subtitle, the Secretary shall have the person served with a written order that directs the person served to abate the violation within a time specified in the order.

{b}--The Secretary shall give any person served with an order under this section an opportunity for a hearing before the Secretary. The person served may be represented at the hearing by counsel.