CHAPTER 681

(Senate Bill 632)

AN ACT concerning

Group Health - Insurance Coverage of Surviving Spouses

FOR the purpose of requiring group health insurance contracts to offer the spouse and dependent children of a deceased employee the option to continue coverage; specifying the eligibility for and duration of the continuation coverage; specifying the maximum period a spouse or dependent child may continue coverage; prohibiting continuation coverage from being conditional upon evidence of insurability or waiting periods; requiring continuation coverage to be identical to coverage offered to similarly situated individuals whose spouse is not deceased; specifying a time period and procedure for the surviving spouse to elect continuation coverage; requiring certificates issued under group insurance contracts to specify the terms and
