

(2) An individual employed by the United States government as a dietitian OR NUTRITIONIST, while practicing within the scope of that employment;

(3) An individual who aids in the practice of dietetics, if the individual works under the direct or indirect supervision of a licensed dietitian OR LICENSED NUTRITIONIST or licensed physician; AND

(4) A registered dietitian who has recently become a resident of this State, or is a resident of this State but is not licensed, and who:

(i) Has applied for licensure; and

(ii) Has not had a license application denied in this State[; and

(5) A faculty member at an institution of higher education while teaching or conducting research related to the study of nutrition or dietetics].

(c) Subject to regulations adopted by the Board, an individual may practice dietetics without a license if the individual:

(1) Has met the academic and [clinical] EXPERIENCE requirements to be a licensed dietitian OR LICENSED NUTRITIONIST;

(2) Has applied for or taken the licensing examination; and

(3) Is awaiting notification of the examination results.

4.5-302.

(a) To qualify for a license, an applicant shall be an individual who meets the requirements of this section.

(b) The applicant must be of good moral character.

(c) The applicant must be at least 18 years old.

(d) The applicant FOR LICENSURE AS A DIETITIAN shall:

(1) (i) Have satisfactorily completed academic requirements for the field of dietetics as approved by the Board;

(ii) Have received a baccalaureate degree or a higher degree from a college or university approved by the Board; and

(iii) Have satisfactorily completed a program of supervised clinical experience approved by the Commission on