CHAPTER 767

(House Bill 1063)

AN ACT concerning

Workmen's Compensation - Subsequent Injury Fund
and Lump Sum Awards

FOR the purpose of requiring the Workmen's Compensation Commission, when a lump sum is granted, to reduce the weekly rate of compensation to a certain amount under certain circumstances; requiring the Workmen's Compensation Commission, when payments are made by the Subsequent Injury Fund under the provisions relating to lump sum payments, to determine the dollar amount and the precise number of weeks to be paid; providing that certain provisions of law relating to lump sum payments also apply to provisions relating to costs and attorney's fees; requiring the Workmen's Compensation Commission to deduct from awards made against the Subsequent Injury Fund the dollar amount of certain other awards previously made; providing a method of deducting credit made in cases of permanent total disability; repealing a certain provision relating to the payment of a lump sum above a certain amount; and generally relating to workmen's compensation awards.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
