

fee arrangement does not violate Article 56, § 227(a)(2) of the Code.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects an omitted word and erroneous punctuation in Article 27, § 465A.

The word "shall" was omitted from existing language in the passage of Ch. 686 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the General Assembly of 1985. A period, rather than a comma, was erroneously added immediately preceding the word "if" in the last sentence of § 465A, also in Ch. 686 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1985.

The omission of the word "shall" was noted by the Office of the Attorney General to the General Assembly. The erroneous punctuation was noted by the Code Revision Division of the Department of Legislative Reference.

593B.

Matters relating to competence to stand trial and [insanity] CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY in criminal cases are governed by Title 12 of the Health - General Article.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This substitutes a reference to "criminal responsibility" for a reference to "insanity" in Article 27, § 593B.

The substitution corrects an erroneous omission from Ch. 501 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1984, which implemented the recommendations of the Governor's Task Force to Review the Defense of Insanity.

The omission was noted by the Administrative Office of the Courts of Maryland.

594A.

(a) In any case, except as provided in subsection (b), involving a child who has reached 14 years of age but has not reached 18 years of age at the time of any alleged offense excluded under the provisions of [§ 3-804(d)(1) or (d)(4)] § 3-804(E)(1) OR (E)(4) of the Courts Article, the court exercising jurisdiction may transfer the case to the juvenile court if a waiver is believed to be in the interests of the child or society.

(b) The court may not transfer a case to the juvenile court under subsection (a) if:

(1) The child has previously been waived to juvenile court and adjudicated delinquent;
