SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1986.

May 27, 1986

The Honorable Melvin A. Steinberg
President of the Senate
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed Senate Bill 961.

This bill exempts persons providing refuse pickup and disposal while actually engaged in the pickup and disposal of garbage and refuse and does not provide those services for controlled hazardous waste substances from hazardous chemical safety regulations.

House Bill 746, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 13, 1986, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign Senate Bill 961.

Sincerely,
Harry Hughes
Governor

Senate Bill No. 961

AN ACT concerning

Labor and Industry - Hazardous Chemicals -
Garbage and Refuse Pickup and Disposal

FOR the purpose of exempting certain persons who engage in the business of providing commercial or residential garbage and refuse pickup and disposal services from certain provisions of the occupational safety laws concerning hazardous chemicals while actually engaging in the pickup and disposal of garbage and refuse; providing for the inclusion of the business establishment of certain garbage and refuse pickup and disposal services in the occupational safety laws
