

(4) Contain a statement that the petitioner needs care, supervision, and treatment.]

[9-639.

When a petitioner under Part V of this subtitle appears before the court, the court shall:

(1) Give the petitioner a copy of each paper not yet served on the petitioner;

(2) If the petitioner does not have counsel, advise the petitioner of the petitioner's right to counsel; and

(3) Advise the petitioner that:

(i) If the court finds reasonable grounds to believe that the petitioner is a drug addict, the court will order the petitioner to have a medical examination;

(ii) After the medical examination, the petitioner must appear again before the court;

(iii) If the petition and the report of the medical examination set forth reasonable grounds to believe that the petitioner is a drug addict, the court may commit the petitioner to the Administration; and

(iv) Before commitment may be ordered, the petitioner has a right to a trial.]

[9-640.

(a) When the petitioner appears before the court, the court may examine, under oath, the petitioner or any other witnesses.

(b) (1) If the court finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the petitioner is a drug addict, the court shall order the petitioner to have a medical examination.

(2) The order shall state:

(i) The date and facility for the medical examination; and

(ii) The date on which the petitioner is to appear again before the court, which date shall be, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, within 7 days after admission of the petitioner to the medical examination facility.

(c) The petitioner and the Administration shall be given a copy of the order.]

[9-641.