

(3) The order shall be served on each party interested in the commitment petition and on any other person that the court names.

(b) (1) The trial shall be held at the time and place stated in the order, unless later changed by the court.

(2) The court may issue a subpoena for attendance of any witness at the trial. The petitioner is entitled to have subpoenas issued for that purpose.

(3) At the trial, the petitioner is entitled:

(i) To offer evidence; and

(ii) To cross-examine adverse witnesses.

(4) The petitioner may be examined as a witness.

(c) The court immediately shall commit the petitioner to the Administration if the trier of fact finds, on clear and convincing evidence, that:

(1) The petitioner is a drug addict;

(2) The petitioner needs care, supervision, and treatment because of the drug addiction;

(3) The petitioner is a danger to the life or safety of the petitioner or another; and

(4) There is no available less restrictive form of intervention that is consistent with the welfare and safety of the petitioner.]

[9-643.

If the court does not commit the individual under Part V of this subtitle, the court shall certify that determination and return the defendant to the correctional institution to resume serving the sentence.]

9-647.

(a) The Administration may assign or transfer an individual who is committed to the Administration under this subtitle to a facility of any person or State agency.

(b) [(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, the] THE Administration may assign supervision of an individual to any person or public agency, in accordance with the policies that the Administration adopts and to which the person or agency head agree.
