

The omission was noted by the Computer Division of the Department of Legislative Reference.

5.

The president of the said board, provided in [§ 3] § 4 of this subtitle, shall have power to summon witnesses, enforce their attendance and administer oaths and hear and determine the matter in dispute, and within three days after the investigation render a decision thereon, a copy of which shall be furnished each party to the dispute, and shall be final.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects an outdated cross-reference in Article 89, § 5.

Article 89, § 3 became Article 89, § 4 in the Acts of the General Assembly of 1951.

The outdated cross-reference was noted by the Michie Company.

11.

It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to do all in his power to promote the voluntary arbitration, mediation and conciliation of controversies and disputes between employers and employees, and to avoid resort to lockouts, boycotts, blacklists, discriminations and legal proceedings in or arising out of such controversies and disputes and matters of employment. In pursuance of this duty, the said Commissioner may, whenever he deems advisable, but subject to the approval of the Governor, appoint boards of arbitration for the consideration and settlement of such controversies and disputes, and provide for the necessary expenses of such arbitration boards and for such reasonable compensation to the members serving thereon as the said Commissioner may deem proper, not exceeding, however, the sum of five dollars per day for each member for each day during which such member is engaged in work upon said arbitration boards. The said Commissioner shall prescribe rules of procedure for such arbitration boards, and the said arbitration board shall have the power to conduct investigations and hold hearings, to summon witnesses, and enforce their attendance through the ordinary processes of law in the cities and counties in which such arbitration boards may meet, subject to all the penalties for nonattendance to which witnesses in ordinary civil cases are subject, and in like manner may require the production of books, documents and papers and may administer oaths, all to the same extent that such powers are possessed and exercised by the civil courts of the State; and said arbitration boards shall make, report and publish findings for the settlement of such controversies and disputes. The said Commissioner shall himself have like power to conduct investigations and hold hearings, summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, administer oaths, require the production of books, documents and papers, and make and publish reports and findings with respect to any and all
