Article 96 1/2 - Veterans

In administering the directions of this subtitle as to reinstatement and reemployment of Second World War veterans, the following rules shall apply:

(c) The right to determine what is a "comparable" or "most comparable" position is hereby vested in the [State Commissioner] SECRETARY of Personnel in the cases of Second World War veterans who were State employees, either classified or unclassified, in the cases of Second World War veterans who were employees of other governmental units, such right shall be vested in the civil service commission or individual or body having similar powers and duties in any governmental unit having such a civil service commission, or other individual or body with similar powers and duties, or if there be none in any governmental unit in the appointing authority of such governmental unit. Any such determination by the appropriate official or body herein authorized to pass thereon, unless arbitrary or wholly unreasonable, shall be binding upon the appointing authority and the veteran.

In case of any Second World War veteran who was a State employee, either classified or unclassified, the [State Commissioner] SECRETARY of Personnel shall have the authority, after proper investigation, including medical and mental examinations deemed necessary, to determine the qualifications of such a veteran to perform the duties of the position to which he asks reinstatement or reemployment. In the case of all other
