Article 88A - Social Services Administration

1.

(a) There is hereby created and established a State Administration, to be known as the "Social Services Administration", hereinafter referred to as the "State Administration" or as the "State Department".

(b) The State Director of Social Services may prescribe the number, [salaries] and minimum qualifications of all of the personnel engaged in the administration of the activities of the State Administration and of the local departments of social services (hereinafter referred to as "local departments"), created or continued under the provisions of § 13 of this article, as are financed in whole or in part by the State Administration.

(c) The exercise of all authority, duties, and functions vested in the Social Services Administration or the State Director of Social Services by the provisions of this article or by any other laws of this State shall be subject to the authority of the Secretary of Human Resources as set forth in Article 41 of this Code or elsewhere in the laws of Maryland.

Article 89 - Division of Labor and Industry

11.

It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to do all in his power to promote the voluntary arbitration, mediation and conciliation of controversies and disputes between employers and employees, and to avoid resort to lockouts, boycotts, blacklists, discriminations and legal proceedings in or arising out of such controversies and disputes and matters of employment. In pursuance of this duty, the said Commissioner may, whenever he deems advisable, but subject to the approval of the Governor, appoint boards of arbitration for the consideration and settlement of such controversies and disputes, and provide for the necessary expenses of such arbitration boards and for such reasonable compensation to the members serving thereon as the said Commissioner may deem proper, not exceeding, however, the sum of five dollars per day for each member for each day during which such member is engaged in work upon said arbitration boards. The said Commissioner shall prescribe rules of procedure for such arbitration boards, and the said arbitration board shall have the power to conduct investigations and hold hearings, to summon witnesses, and enforce their attendance through the
