CHAPTER 196

(House Bill 314)

AN ACT concerning

Licenses - Motor Fuel Inspection Law

FOR the purpose of repealing duplicative definitions of certain terms in the Motor Fuel Inspection Law; conforming certain terminology to that used in the Motor Vehicle Fuel Tax Law; defining a term; requiring registration of marinas and inspection of fuel quality at marinas; correcting terminology regarding registration and inspection requirements; deleting certain requirements regarding delivery of gasoline and special fuels; providing clarifying language; and generally relating to motor fuel inspection provisions.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article 56 - Licenses
Section 157A, 157C(a), 157E(a), 157F(a), (b), (c), and (h), and 157G
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1983 Replacement Volume and 1985 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article 56 - Licenses

157A.

The definitions set forth in § 135 of this article shall be applicable to this subtitle. In addition, the following words, terms or phrases are, for purposes hereof, defined as follows:

[(1) The word "gasoline" as used in this law shall embrace and include gasoline, benzol, benzine, naphtha and any other liquid prepared, advertised, offered for sale, sold for use as, or used for, the generation or power for the propulsion of motor vehicles including any product obtained by blending together any one or more products of petroleum with or without other products, if the resultant product is capable of the same use.

(2) The words "special fuels" shall embrace and include diesel oils, kerosene, and heating oils or liquids used
