(c) Where the employer has been given notice, or the employer, or his designated representative in the place where the injury occurred, has knowledge of any injury or death of an employee, and the employer fails, neglects or refuses to file a report thereof, as required by the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, the limitations prescribed by this article shall not begin to run against the claimant or any person entitled to compensation until such report shall have been furnished as required by subsection (b) of this section. This section shall not apply to an "employee" as defined by [§ 67(4)] § 67(3) OF THIS ARTICLE.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects an outdated cross-reference and corrects a stylistic error in Article 101, § 38(c).

Article 101, § 67(4) became § 67(3) in Ch. 502 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1972. The stylistic error (the omission of "of this article") occurred in Ch. 742 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1968.

The stylistic error was noted by the professional staff of the Legislative Division of the Department of Legislative Reference. The outdated cross-reference was noted by the Michie Company.

42.

Any employee entitled to receive compensation under this article is required, if requested by the Commission to submit himself for medical examination at a time and from time to time at a place reasonably convenient for the employee and as may be provided by the rules of the Commission. If the employee [refuse] REFUSES to submit to any such examination, or obstructs the same, his right to compensation shall be suspended until such examination has taken place, and no compensation shall be payable during or for account of such period.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects a grammatical error in Article 101, § 42.

The grammatical error occurred in the Acts of the General Assembly of 1924.

The grammatical error was noted by the Computer Division of the Department of Legislative Reference.
