

AN ACT concerning

University of Baltimore - Use of Public Funds

FOR the purpose of repealing a certain provision that prohibits the University of Baltimore from using public funds for the construction of certain dormitory facilities; and generally relating to the use of public funds by the University of Baltimore.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article - Education
Section 14-301(c)
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1985 Replacement Volume and 1986 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article - Education

14-301.

(c) (1) Funds provided in the State budget may be used to:

(i) Support grants and scholarships to any eligible minority student enrolled in either the day or evening division at the downtown campus of the University of Baltimore School of Law;

(ii) Provide staff to recruit and counsel students; and

(iii) Provide academic support services that are adequate to maintain aid and academic programs.

(2) The academic services shall be available to all students enrolled at the School of Law.

(3) Each award under this subsection shall be based on need as determined by the financial aid office of the University of Baltimore.

[(4) The University of Baltimore is an educational institution for commuting students, and public funds may not be used for the construction of dormitory facilities for the University of Baltimore.]
