(a) A police record concerning a child is confidential and shall be maintained separate from those of adults. Its contents may not be divulged, by subpoena or otherwise, except by order of the court upon good cause shown. This subsection does not prohibit access to and confidential use of the record by the Juvenile Services [Administration] AGENCY or in the investigation and prosecution of the child by any law enforcement agency.

(b) A juvenile court record pertaining to a child is confidential and its contents may not be divulged, by subpoena or otherwise, except by order of the court upon good cause shown. This subsection does not prohibit access to and the use of the court record in a proceeding in the court involving the child, by personnel of the court, the State's Attorney, counsel for the child, or authorized personnel of the Juvenile Services [Administration] AGENCY.

(f) Subject to the provisions of [§ 4-102 of the Health - General Article] ARTICLE 41C, § 2-115 OF THE CODE, this section does not prohibit access to or use of any juvenile record for criminal justice research purposes. A record used under the subsection may not contain the name of the individual to whom the record pertains, or any other identifying information which could reveal the individual's name.

3-829.

(g) The Juvenile Services [Administration] AGENCY is responsible for the collection of restitution payments when the restitution order provides that restitution is to be made in periodic or installment payments, as part of probation, or pursuant to a work plan.
