

the method of handling the water, as practiced in that state, are not prejudicial to the public health, and that the water is allowed to be sold in the state that issued the permit.

(2) Nothing in this section prevents the Department from prohibiting the use of water shipped from outside this State, if, in the judgment of the Department, the water is shown by analysis to be unfit for drinking or if its quality in any way is injured by such handling as may be accorded to it after arriving in this State.

(d) Drinking water packaged and sold in this State in individual containers made of paper or plastic-coated paper shall be marked with a stencil or stamp clearly indicating the month and day the water was placed in the container.]

[9-221.

(a) No new source of ice supply, either natural or artificial, may be used for furnishing ice to the public for domestic purposes unless the source is approved by the Secretary and a permit is issued by the Secretary for the harvesting or manufacture, and the sale, of ice from that source.

(b) No ice may be stored in an unclean place, handled in an unclean manner, or brought into contact with polluted water.

(c) The Secretary may make and enforce rules and regulations regarding the selection and care of sources of ice supply and the methods employed in harvesting, manufacturing, storing, and handling ice.]

[11-201.

(a) The Secretary shall implement a program to post, in each facility that prepares food and provides seating for patrons, a diagram of illustrative directions on the use of manual maneuvers to prevent asphyxiation due to choking.

(b) The Secretary may adopt rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this section.

(c) The Secretary shall prepare abstracts of this section and provide them, on request, to any person.

(d) To enforce any rule or regulation adopted or order issued under this section, the Secretary or a representative of the Secretary, at any reasonable time, may enter and inspect any facility that prepares food and provides seating for patrons.

(e) (1) If the Secretary believes that a person is violating a rule or regulation adopted under this section, the Secretary shall serve the person with a written order that