

Licensure authorizes the registered environmental sanitarian to use the title "registered environmental sanitarian" and the initials "R.S." after the name of the registered environmental sanitarian while the license is in effect.

[5.5-309] 11-309.

(a) A license expires on the date specified on the license, unless it is renewed for a 2-year term as provided in this section.

(b) At least 1 month before the license expires, the Board shall send to the licensee, by first class mail to the last known address of the licensee, a renewal notice that states:

(1) The date on which the current license expires;

(2) The date by which the renewal application must be received by the Board for the renewal to be issued and mailed before the license expires;

(3) The amount of the renewal fee; and

(4) The hours of approved training required for renewal of licensure.

(c) Before the license expires, the licensee may renew it for an additional 2-year term, if the licensee:

(1) Otherwise is entitled to be licensed;

(2) Pays to the Board the renewal fee set by the Board;

(3) Submits to the Board a renewal application on the form that the Board requires; and

(4) Submits to the Board proof that during the previous 2-year period, the licensee has acquired 20 hours of approved training in environmental health or other equivalent education as approved by the Board.

(d) The renewal license shall bear the same serial number assigned to the licensee at the time of the original registration or licensure.

[5.5-310] 11-310.

The Board shall reinstate the license of a registered environmental sanitarian who has failed to renew the license for any reason if the registered environmental sanitarian:
