(b) The bonds shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, payable semiannually, and shall mature at such time or times not exceeding 40 years from the date or dates of their respective issues as may be determined by the Authority, and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the Authority, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the Authority prior to the issuance of the bonds. (c) Revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the State or of any political subdivision thereof or a pledge of the faith and credit of the State or of any such political subdivision, but the bonds shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided therefor from market or park revenues. All revenue bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that neither the Authority nor the State nor any political subdivision thereof is obligated to pay the principal or the interest thereon except from market or park revenues.

(d) The Authority shall determine the form of the revenue bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, the manner of executing the bonds, the denomination or denominations of the bonds, and the place or places of payment of principal and interest thereof, which may be a bank or trust company within or without the State.

(e) The revenue bonds and any interest coupons to be attached thereto shall be executed in such manner as may be determined by the Authority. If any officer whose signature or facsimile thereof appears on any bond or coupon ceases to be such officer before the delivery of bonds, the signature or facsimile thereof shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until the delivery.

(f) All revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this section have and are hereby declared to have, as between successive holders, all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the negotiable instruments law section of the Uniform Commercial Code of this State. Provisions may be made for the registration of any of the bonds in the name of the owner as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and for the issuance of new coupon bonds in exchange for bonds registered as to both principal and interest.
