

professional consultants shall serve at the pleasure of the Secretary. All other employees of the Secretary's office, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be appointed and removed by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of Article 64A of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

(c) The appointment or removal of personnel by an administration, board, commission, division, or other agency within the jurisdiction of the Department of Employment and Training shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary; however, the Secretary is authorized to delegate this power of approval to the heads of governing bodies of the administrations, boards, commissions, divisions, or other agencies within the jurisdiction of the Department of Employment and Training.

(d) The Attorney General shall be the legal advisor to the Department of Employment and Training. The Attorney General shall assign to the Department such number of assistant attorneys general as are now authorized by law to be assigned to the various departments, agencies, boards, commissions, councils, or units which are herein, or may hereafter by law be deemed to be part of the Department of Employment and Training; and the Attorney General shall also assign to the Department such additional number of assistant attorneys general as may hereafter be authorized by law for such Department. One of the said assistant attorneys general shall be designated by the Attorney General as counsel to the Department of Employment and Training. The counsel to the Department shall have no duty other than to render, subject to the discretion and control of the Attorney General, such legal aid, advice, and counsel as the Secretary and the other officials of said Department may require, and the supervision of the other assistant attorneys general assigned to the Department. After the Attorney General has designated an assistant attorney general to serve as counsel to the Department, the Attorney General shall not reassign said counsel without consultation with the Secretary. The counsel to the Department of Employment and Training, and the other assistant attorneys general so employed, shall each perform such legal duties for the Department as the Attorney General may from time to time assign to them; and the Attorney General is hereby authorized to assign to them, and each of them, the performance subject to the Attorney General's discretion and control of any of the duties with respect to said Department required of the Attorney General by law. All such assistant attorneys general shall be practicing lawyers of the State of Maryland, in good standing, and they shall receive such compensation as shall be provided in the State budget. This subsection shall not apply with respect to any agencies or units of government within the Department of Employment and Training to the extent that such agencies or units are authorized by law to employ their own legal advisors or counsel.
