

(7) The manner in which and the times and places that the principal of the bonds is to be paid, within the limitations set forth in this [subheading] SUBTITLE;

(8) Provisions pursuant to which any or all of the bonds may be called for redemption prior to their stated maturity dates; or

(9) Such other provisions not inconsistent with this [subheading] SUBTITLE as shall be determined by such legislative body to be necessary or desirable to effect the financing of the proposed undertaking.

(c) Neither the ordinance authorizing the bonds referred to herein, nor any ordinance, resolution, or executive order passed or adopted in furtherance thereof, nor the bonds themselves, shall be subject to any referendum by reason of any other State or local law, except that an ordinance authorizing the pledge of the full faith and credit of a county or municipality to the payment of principal and interest on bonds issued pursuant to this [subheading] SUBTITLE shall be subject to any applicable provisions for referendum.

14-213.

This [subheading] SUBTITLE may not be construed to authorize any municipality or county to acquire any property by eminent domain.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects outdated cross-references and stylistic errors in cross-references in Article 41, §§ 14-201, 14-202(a), (e), and (j), 14-203, 14-204, 14-205, 14-207, 14-208(a) and (b), 14-210, and 14-213.

Former subheading "Tax Increment Financing Act" became Title 14, Subtitle 2 of this article when the sections of Article 41 were renumbered pursuant to Ch. 5 of the Acts of 1986.

The stylistic error in § 14-202(a) occurred in Ch. 498 of the Acts of 1980. The stylistic errors in § 14-208 occurred in Ch. 544 of the Acts of 1982.

The outdated cross-references were noted by the Michie Company. The stylistic errors were noted by the professional staff of the Legislative Division of the Department of Legislative Reference.
