

(1984 Volume and 1986 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article - Family Law

10-113.

(a) Each year, the Administration may certify to the State Comptroller any obligor who is more than 60 days in arrears of support payments under the most recent court order, if:

(1) the Administration has accepted an assignment of support under Article 88A, § 48(2) of the Code; or

(2) the recipient of support payments has filed an application for support enforcement services with the Administration.

(b) The Administration shall notify the obligor that:

(1) a certification has been made by the Administration; and

(2) the obligor may ask the Administration to investigate the arrearage.

(c) The certification shall include, if known:

(1) the full name of the obligor, and any other names known to be used by the obligor;

(2) the address and the social security number of the obligor; and

(3) the amount of the arrearage.

(d) (1) On receipt of notice of certification, any obligor who disputes the existence or amount of the arrearage may ask the Administration to investigate the arrearage.

(2) On receipt of a request for investigation from the obligor, the Administration shall:

(i) conduct an investigation as to the accuracy of the reported arrearage; and

(ii) if the Administration finds that there is an error, correct the amount of the reported arrearage or withdraw the certification.
