

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects antiquated language and the omission of punctuation in Article 49B, § 9(c).

The antiquated language was contained in, and the punctuation, an apostrophe, was omitted from Ch. 153 of the Acts of 1969.

The omission of the punctuation was noted by the Michie Company. The antiquated language was noted by the professional staff of the Legislative Division of the Department of Legislative Reference.

12.

(b) (1) Any person (including one acting for or on behalf of a firm, association, or corporation) is guilty of a misdemeanor if:

[[1]] (I) He has claimed to be aggrieved under the provisions of this subtitle; [and]

[[2]] (II) He has pursued the complaint under [ §§ 11 and 12] THIS SECTION AND § 11 of this subtitle, or either of these sections; [and]

[[3]] (III) The Commission has found the complaint to be unfounded or has dismissed it without further action against the respondent; and

[[4]] (IV) The court has found the complaint to have been made maliciously; and upon conviction thereof in the appropriate criminal court, he is subject to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

(2) This subsection shall not be construed or applied to deny the right of a respondent to bring any civil action against one who has filed a complaint under this subtitle.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects stylistic errors and in the numbering of subsections and paragraphs deletes extraneous conjunctions in Article 49B, § 12(b).

The stylistic errors, in a cross-reference and in the numbering of subsections and paragraphs, and the extraneous conjunctions, "and", were contained in Ch. 228 of the Acts of 1963.

The stylistic error in the cross-reference was noted by the Michie Company. The stylistic errors in numbering and the extraneous conjunction were noted by
