

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects an outdated cross-reference in Article 64A, § 12-I(d).

The provisions of Article 76A relating to the confidentiality of records became Title 10, Subtitle 6 of the State Government Article in Ch. 284 of the Acts of 1984.

The outdated cross-reference was noted by the Michie Company.

(b) The list of eligibles for each class of position in the classified service shall be made up first of names [and] OF persons who have previously held positions in such class and who were laid off in good standing under § 35 of this article, and then of names of persons in the order of merit who have been examined by the Secretary and found qualified.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects a typographical error in Article 64A, § 17(b).

The typographical error, the use of the conjunction "and" in the place of preposition "of", was a publishing error and occurred in the publication of the 1972 Replacement Volume for Volume 5B of the Annotated Code.

The typographical error was noted by the Computer Division of the Department of Legislative Reference.

(a) The Secretary of Personnel shall prepare a list of eligibles consisting of the names of persons whose general average and whose marks on any part of the examination exceed the minimum set by the rules of the Secretary and shall publicly post such list in his office. Eligible lists shall continue in force for one year from the date of posting and may be extended by the Secretary by action taken before the expiration of such year, and entered in the minutes, provided, however, that the Secretary[,] shall have power at any time, after a public hearing and notice as prescribed by § 20 of this article, to cancel the whole or any part of any eligible list by reason of illegality or fraud in connection therewith. The Secretary shall also have the power, in his discretion, to remove the name of any person from an eligible list for any wilful misrepresentation of a material matter made in an application for examination to establish an eligible list. A new eligible list for any class shall be combined with an existing list as the Secretary may by rules provide but in such case any portion of such combined list shall be automatically cancelled one year after being first posted
