

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects antiquated language and an outdated reference and clarifies the language in Article 89, § 4.

The antiquated language and the language being clarified was contained in Ch. 671 of the Acts of 1904.

The Department of Labor and Industry became a division of the Department of Licensing and Regulation in Ch. 402 of the Acts of 1970.

The outdated reference was noted by the Computer Division of the Department of Legislative Reference. The antiquated language was noted, and the clarification was suggested by the professional staff of the Department of Legislative Reference.

10.

All information of a personal character or pertaining to the private business of any person, firm or corporation, or which might have a tendency to expose the profits or methods of doing business by any person, firm or corporation, coming to the knowledge of the Commissioner or person deputized by him, or to the arbitrators selected under the aforesaid provisions, shall be deemed confidential and so treated, and all documents and testimony taken shall be filed in the office of the [Department] DIVISION of Labor and Industry.

13.

(a) All elections shall be by secret ballot. Whenever two or more labor organizations are included as choices in an election, either participant, upon its prompt request to and approval thereof by the Commissioner or his duly authorized representatives, whose decision shall be final, may have its name removed from the ballot. Any party may be represented by observers of his own selection, subject to such limitations as the Commissioner or his duly authorized representatives may prescribe. Any party and the [Department] DIVISION of Labor and Industry representatives may challenge, for good cause, the eligibility of any person to participate in the election. The ballots of such challenged persons shall be impounded. Upon the conclusion of the election, the Commissioner or his duly authorized representatives shall cause to be furnished to the parties a tally of the ballots. Within five days after the tally of ballots has been furnished, any party may file with the Commissioner four copies of objections to the conduct of the election or conduct affecting the results of the election, which shall contain a short statement of the reasons therefor. Such filing must be timely whether or not the challenged ballots are
