

rest. The foregoing sentence shall appear in any application form for employment.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to permit any fine or penalty against any supervisory employee or agent who has been caused, directed or authorized by his employer to violate any provision of § 534J, in which case the employer shall be subject to the sanctions prescribed by this section.]

[534K.

Nothing contained in §§ 492, 521 and 522 of this article, amended from time to time, shall be applicable within Harford County.]

[534L.

(a) The provisions of this section apply to Baltimore County and Baltimore City.

(b) (1) It is unlawful on Sunday for any wholesale or retail establishment to conduct business for labor or profit in the usual manner and location or to operate its establishment in any manner for the general public.

(2) A wholesale or retail establishment may not cause, direct, or authorize any employee or agent to engage in or conduct business on its behalf on Sunday.

(c) (1) The State's Attorney of Baltimore County may petition the Circuit Court to enjoin any violation of this section.

(2) The State's Attorney of Baltimore City may petition the Circuit Court for Baltimore City to enjoin any violation of this section.

(d) (1) Any person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, is subject to the penalties provided by this subsection.

(2) The first conviction is punishable by a fine not to exceed an amount equivalent to $500 multiplied by the number of employees that are working in excess of the number permitted under the provisions of § 534L-1 of this article.

(3) The second conviction is punishable by a fine not to exceed an amount equivalent to $1,000 multiplied by the number of employees that are working in excess of the number permitted under the provisions of § 534L-1 of this article.