

3. Any business with not more than eight (8) persons on any one shift on Sunday with the exception of persons or retailers engaged in the sale of motor vehicles.

(d) Nothing in this section is applicable to any person who by reason of his religious conviction observes a day other than Sunday as his day of rest and actually refrains from labor or secular business on that day, and whose establishment is closed for business on that day. The term "a day other than Sunday" as used herein shall mean any consecutive twenty-four hour period.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, any establishment which offers service as its primary business is allowed to operate on Sunday.

(f) Industries where continuous processing or manufacturing is required by the very nature of the process involved are allowed to operate on Sunday.

(g) All recreational activities, sports, and amusements are permitted on Sunday.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be deemed or construed to amend other provisions of law with reference to the prohibition of work, sport, business, alcoholic beverage sales, or the service of process on Sunday.

(i) The State's Attorney of Calvert County may petition the circuit court of such county to enjoin any violation of this section.

(j) Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, is subject to the following penalties. A conviction under this section is to be punished by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), for each employee caused, directed, permitted or authorized to work in violation of this section. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to permit any fine upon any employee or agent who has been caused or directed by his employer to violate the provisions of this section.]

[534N-1.

(a) The provisions of this section apply only to Anne Arundel County.

(b) (1) It is unlawful on Sunday for any wholesale or retail establishment to conduct business for labor or profit in the usual manner and location or to operate its establishment in any manner for the general public.
