

on Sunday for any wholesale or retail establishment to conduct business for labor or profit in the usual manner and location or to operate its establishment in any manner for the general public. It may not cause, direct, permit or authorize any employee or agent to engage in or conduct business on its behalf on Sunday.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the operation of any of the following types of retail establishments, to sell or deliver only those items enumerated in this section, is allowed on Sunday:

(1) Retailers who may sell and deliver tobacco products, candy, sodas and soft drinks, ice cream, ices and other confectionery, hosiery, newspapers, magazines, stationery items, greeting cards, books, souvenirs, film and camera supplies, drugs, patent medicines, toilet articles, hygienic items, baby needs, medical supplies and related items, cosmetics and beauty aids, and food or foodstuffs prepared or intended for human or household pet consumption.

(2) Delicatessens whose principal business is the sale of delicatessens and related food items.

(3) Bakeries and bakeshops.

(4) Gasoline stations whose principal business is the sale of gasoline, oil, and other automobile maintenance items.

(5) Restaurants, grills, and snack bars.

(c) This section does not apply to:

(1) Farmers.

(2) Nurserymen.

(3) Antique dealers and flea markets.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any retail establishment may conduct business in the usual manner on the four consecutive successive Sundays that immediately precede December 25.

(e) This section is not applicable to any person who by reason of his religious conviction observes a day other than Sunday as his day of rest and actually refrains from labor or secular business on that day, and whose establishment is closed for business on that day. The term "a day other than Sunday" as used herein means any consecutive 24-hour period.
