37.

(a) In addition to the compensation provided for herein the employer shall promptly provide for an injured employee, for such period as the nature of the injury may require, such medical, surgical or other attendance or treatment, nurse and hospital services, medicines, crutches, apparatus, artificial hands, arms, feet and legs and other prosthetic appliances as may be required by the Commission, provided, however, that any order or award of the Commission, under this subsection, shall not be construed to reopen any case, or permit any previous award to be changed or modified, except as provided in § 40(c) and 40(d) of this article.

(b) The employer shall repair or replace any eyeglasses, artificial limb, eye, tooth or other part that shall be damaged or destroyed as a result of an accident during the course of employment and if the eyeglasses, artificial limb, eye, tooth, or other part is not repaired, or replaced within three days following its damage or destruction, then the employer shall pay the employee such compensation for his lost time, if any, after the three-day waiting period, as the Commission may direct. If an employer fails to provide the same, the injured employee may do so at the expense of the employer.

(c) All fees and other charges for such treatment and services shall be subject to regulation by the Commission, and shall be limited to such charges as prevail in the same community for similar treatment of injured persons of a like standard of living. AT LEAST ONCE EVERY 2 YEARS, THE COMMISSION SHALL REVIEW THE ALLOWABLE FEES AND OTHER CHARGES FOR COMPLETENESS AND REASONABLENESS AND SHALL MAKE APPROPRIATE REVISIONS TO ESTABLISHED GUIDELINES.

(d) In case death ensues from the injury within five years, reasonable funeral expenses shall be allowed, not to exceed the sum of $1,200. Any bill for funeral expenses contracted for an amount in excess of $1,200 shall be null and void and uncollectible out of the compensation allowed or out of the personal assets of the person or persons to whom such
