(7) Up to 3 years during which the borrower is serving an internship which is required to begin professional practice or service as determined by the Board and the Secretary;

(8) Up to 3 years during which the borrower is temporarily totally disabled as established by sworn affidavit of a qualified physician, or during which the borrower is unable to secure employment by reason of care required by a spouse who is so disabled;

(9) Conscientiously seeking but unable to find [full time] FULL-TIME employment in the United States over a single period of up to 12 months as prescribed by the Board or the Secretary; or

(10) Other periods established by the Board or the Secretary.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects a misspelling in § 18-1009(a) of the Education Article.

The misspelling of the adjective "full-time" occurred in Ch. 313 of the Acts of 1981.

The misspelling was noted by the Computer Division of the Department of Legislative Reference.

(b) (2) Except as provided in paragraph (3) [below] OF THIS SUBSECTION, a lender shall allow a borrower at least 5 years, but not more than 10 years, to repay a loan, calculated from the beginning of the repayment period. The borrower shall fully repay a loan within 15 years from the date of the note or agreement evidencing the loan.

(3) (ii) If the minimum annual repayment required in paragraph (5) OF THIS SUBSECTION would result in complete repayment of the loan in less than 5 years, the borrower is not entitled to the full 5 year period. During the grace period, the borrower may request and be granted by the lender a repayment period of less than 5 years. At any time the borrower may have the repayment period extended to a minimum of 5 years.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This corrects stylistic errors in internal references in § 18-1009(b)(2) and (3)(ii) of the Education Article.

The stylistic errors occurred in Ch. 313 of the Acts of 1981.

The stylistic errors were noted by the professional staff of the Legislative Division of the Department of Legislative Reference.
