

(c) (1) As long as a written withdrawal request remains on file, a member who is a holder of a savings account in a savings and loan association who has requested a withdrawal from the account remains a member of the association until the withdrawal request is paid.

(2) A holder of a savings share account in a savings and loan association who has requested a withdrawal from the account is not a creditor of the association, either before or after the request to withdraw money unless an association defaults in any payment due under this section.

(d) This section does not prevent a savings and loan association from restricting by contract a withdrawal from an account of $100,000 or over, or any account that is pledged to the association.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: The inclusion of this provision is intended to correct an error in a function paragraph noted by the Attorney General in a May 5, 1986 letter to the Director of the Department of Legislative Reference regarding the adequacy of the title of Chapter 282 (House Bill 466) of the Acts of 1986. That letter noted that an amended provision of law, relating to the regulations of the Director of the Division of Savings and Loan Associations, was shown in a function paragraph to be unamended. This Curative Bill reprints the amended provision as it now exists, with a related title reference, in order to validate the changes made by Chapter 282.

(a) It is the policy of this State to obligate each recipient of services and, to the extent provided in this title, those legally responsible for the recipient to pay, if financially able, for the cost of care that is received by the recipient of services. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the recipient of services and the chargeable person shall be responsible for payment regardless of whether the recipient of services was admitted voluntarily, involuntarily, or by court order. If the recipient of services is involuntarily admitted to a public facility and released after evaluation, for failure to meet the standards for involuntary commitment, the recipient of services or chargeable person shall not be responsible for the cost of care.
