(b) A gift of all or part of the body for purposes of this subtitle also may be made by document other than a will. The document must be signed by the donor in the presence of two witnesses, who, in turn, shall sign the document in the presence of the donor. If the donor cannot sign in person, the document may be signed for him, at his direction and in his presence, and in the presence of two witnesses, who, in turn, shall sign the document in the presence of the donor. Delivery of the document or gift during the lifetime of the donor is not necessary to make the gift valid. The document may consist of a properly executed card carried on the [the] person of the donor or in his effects.
