

south from Grove Point in Cecil County to a point on the northerly shore of Kent County just east of Betterton and west of 75° 58' 45" of longitude.

(b) A gunning rig or any craft connected with a rig, whether or not anchored, may not be on the river before 3:15 a.m. local standard time on any gunning day.

(c) In addition to any penalty provided in this title, a natural resources police officer or any other law enforcement officer who finds a gunning rig or any other craft that violates subsection (b) of this section shall seize the gunning rig or craft and remove it from the river. Any craft seized under this section may not be returned to the river until a court has heard and determined the case.

If any natural resources police officer or any law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that any person possesses any bird, mammal, amphibian, or reptile or any device in violation of this title, the officer shall go before any District Court judge of the county in which the species of wildlife or device is believed to be and make affidavit to that fact. If the judge finds the affidavit legally sufficient, he shall issue a search warrant against the person complained of, directed to the officer making the affidavit, commanding him to proceed at once and search for the bird, mammal, amphibian, or reptile or the device and, upon finding it, to seize, take possession, and keep it until further order by the judge. The warrant shall be executed pursuant to the Maryland Rules of Procedure or the Maryland District Court Rules. The warrant shall be returned within five days from the issuing date or within a shorter period of time set forth in the search warrant.

(a) If a natural resources police officer or any law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that any species of wildlife or any device is possessed in violation of this title, and it is not possible or feasible to secure a search warrant in time to seize the bird, mammal, amphibian, or reptile or the device, then he may examine any boat, railway car, box, crate, package, or game bag without a warrant.

(b) In this event, a natural resources police officer, in uniform or accompanied by a uniformed police officer, may stop and search an automobile, any vehicle, or trailer for the purpose of examining the game bags. He also may determine whether the person has an appropriate license.

(c) This section does not permit entering a dwelling house without first procuring a search warrant.
