dependents, in accordance with the award of the Commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to a fine of not less than ~~five-hundred~~ $500 nor more than ~~five-thousand-dollars~~ $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one 1 year, or by both such fine or imprisonment; and in any case where the employer is a corporation, the officer of the corporation having responsibility for the general management of the corporation in the State shall be liable to such fine and imprisonment as herein provided. Any fine levied against any employer failing or refusing to secure insurance as required by this article shall be paid into the State treasury and credited to the Commission, and be used for the payment, in whole or in part, of any award made against said employer by the Commission. All disbursements shall be made in the same manner as other monies of the Commission are disbursed. Any part of the said fine not required for payment of an award as herein provided shall be transferred to the General Fund of the State. The court may remit any such penalty only if the employer in default assures the compensation as provided in the section, and has paid or secured to be paid any compensation or other benefits under this article which may have been awarded against him.

(c) Any such employer who may wish to adopt any one 1 of the methods mentioned in the preceding paragraphs for assuring the payment of compensation to his employees and their dependents, shall first submit to the Workmen's Compensation Commission the method he wishes to adopt. The said Commission may approve or reject the method proposed. If rejected, the employer may submit another method authorized under this article. The said Commission may from time to time revise or alter its decision approving the election of an employer to adopt any of the methods of assuring payment of the compensation as provided for in this article, if such action is reasonably necessary to secure and safeguard such payments to employees or for the diminishing and prevention of accidents. Any action of the Commission for the purpose of diminishing or preventing accidents shall not apply to public service corporations under the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission. Any decision of said Commission under this section or § 15 of this article may be reviewed in the circuit court for the county in which the employer may reside.

(d) Any employer, subject to the provisions of this article, who fails or refuses to insure voluntarily the payment of the compensation specified in this article to his employees and their dependents through one 1 of the methods of assurance of payment, mentioned in the second 2ND paragraph of this section, or fails to furnish satisfactory proof to the Commission of his financial ability to pay such compensation himself, or give bond or deposit securities as aforesaid, shall at any time after ~~November 1st, nineteen-hundred--and--fourteen~~ NOVEMBER 1, 1914, be compelled by the Commission to insure to his employees and their dependents the payment of the compensation specified in
