CHAPTER 14

(Senate Bill 833)

AN ACT concerning

Unemployment Insurance - Deduction of Pension, Annuity, or Retirement Payments

FOR the purpose of providing that base period pension, annuity, or retirement payments will be deducted from an individual's unemployment insurance benefits if receipt of the payments is due to the individual's having retired or having been retired from the employer; providing that the payment of retirement benefits in certain circumstances shall not bar the payment of unemployment insurance benefits for a certain time period; clarifying the payments which may constitute lump sum payments; and providing for the application of this Act; and making this Act an emergency measure .

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
