

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

may reasonably be requested by such Issuer or its bond counsel in order to establish the existence of a valid allocation for the proposed bond issuance and to establish that the Maryland State Ceiling has not been exceeded.

Section 11. Housing Credits. The low-income housing tax credit authority limitation pursuant to Section 252 of the Code is hereby allocated to the Department of Economic and Community Development. the Secretary is hereby authorized to administer and reallocate such low-income housing tax credit authority in accordance with the Code. The Housing Finance Review Committee established pursuant to Section 11-302 of Article 41 of the Annotated Code of Maryland shall review and make recommendations to the Secretary on specific request for allocation of such low-income housing credits. The Secretary may approve any request for an allocation without receiving the recommendation of the Housing Finance Review Committee.

Section 12. Severability. If any provision of this Proclamation or the application of it to any person or circumstance is held invalid for any reason in a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or any other application of this Proclamation which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and for this purpose the provisions of this Proclamation are declared severable.

Section 13. Effective Date. This Proclamation shall take effect as of the date it is executed and except as may subsequently be amended, shall remain in effect through December 31, 1987.

CERTIFICATION

I William Donald Schaefer, Governor of the State of Maryland, hereby certify under the penalties of perjury that the allocations of the Maryland State Ceiling made in the foregoing Proclamation dated March 9, 1987 were not made in consideration of any bribe, gift, gratuity, or direct or indirect contribution to any political campaign.
