

and the successful completion of [an eight-hour] A written examination in the fundamentals of surveying; or

(2) Graduation from a surveying or engineering curriculum of four scholastic years or more or their equivalent, other than the ones approved by the Board, and a specific record of four years or more of additional experience in surveying work of a character satisfactory to the Board, and the successful completion of [an eight-hour] A written examination in the fundamentals of surveying.

(d) (1) Before July 1, 1990, any person may be registered as a property line surveyor upon completion of the following requirements:

(i) A specific record of 6 years experience in property line surveying of a character satisfactory to the Board indicating that the applicant may be competent to practice property line surveying, if he presents evidence of such experience satisfactory to the Board. However, each complete year of study, not to exceed 4 years, in a public or private college, including an approved community college, may be accepted in lieu of 1 year of experience if the applicant's course of study included the principles and methods of surveying and the applicant submits evidence of acceptable experience; and

(ii) Successful completion of a written or oral examination in the fundamentals of property line surveying and the principles and practice of property line surveying.

(2) (i) On or after July 1, 1990, the Board may not register any new applicants as property line surveyors.

(ii) Property line surveyors who are registered before July 1, 1990 may renew their registration under § 336 of this subtitle.

(e) A person holding a certificate of registration to engage in the practice of land surveying on the basis of comparable qualifications, issued to him by a proper authority of a state, territory, or possession of the United States, or the District of Columbia, who, in the opinion of the Board, qualified under requirements equivalent to the requirements of this subtitle, as they existed at the time of such prior registration, based on verified evidence, upon application, may be registered without taking the written examination provided for in this subtitle.

(f) A person is not eligible for consideration for registration as a professional land surveyor or property line surveyor or certification as a land surveyor-in-training who is not of good character and reputation.
