

(3) Memoranda, working papers and correspondence held by the office of the chief executive officer of Charles County or any political subdivision of Charles County;

(4) Memoranda, working papers and records compiled specifically for use in litigation and material furnished in confidence to the offices specified in item (3) of this subsection; and

(5) Memoranda, working papers, and records held by central committees of political parties.

(d) Except as otherwise specifically provided by law or as provided in subsections (e) and (f) of this section, all meetings shall be public meetings. Information as to the time and place of each meeting shall be furnished to any citizen who requests the information.

(e) Executive or closed meetings may be held only for the following purposes:

(1) Discussion or consideration of employment, assignment, appointment, promotion, demotion, salaries, disciplining or resignation of public officers, appointees or employees of any public body;

(2) Discussion or consideration of the condition, acquisition or use of real property for public purpose, or of the disposition of publicly held property;

(3) The protection of the privacy of individuals in personal matters not related to public business;

(4) Discussion concerning a prospective business or industry where no previous announcement has been made of the business' or industry's interest in locating in the community;

(5) The investing of public funds where competition or bargaining are involved, where if made public initially the financial interest of the government unit would be adversely affected;

(6) Consultation with legal counsel and briefings by staff members, consultants or attorneys, pertaining to pending litigation, or legal matters within the jurisdiction of the public body, including legal documents; and

(7) Discussion of any matter which will be the topic of public hearing prior to a final decision, provided that notice of the public hearing shall be published generally in the community not less than ten days prior to the public hearing.