

(8) No meeting shall become an executive or closed meeting unless there shall have been recorded an affirmative vote to that effect by the public body holding the meeting.

(9) No resolution, ordinance, rule, contract, regulation or motion adopted, passed or agreed to in an executive or closed meeting shall become effective unless the public body, following the executive meeting reconvenes in open meeting and takes a vote of the membership on the resolution, ordinance, rule, contract, regulation or motion.

(10) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the holding of conferences between two or more public bodies, or their representatives, but these conferences shall be subject to the same regulations for holding executive or closed sessions as are applicable to any other public body.

(f) The provisions of this title shall not be applicable to deliberations of petit juries; grand juries; and study commissions or committees appointed by the governing bodies of the county, provided that no committee or commission appointed by these governing bodies, the membership of which consists wholly of members of the governing body, shall be deemed to be study commissions or committees under the provisions of this section.

(g) Any person denied the rights and privileges conferred by this title may proceed to enforce those rights and privileges by petition for mandamus or injunction, supported by an affidavit showing good cause, addressed to the circuit court having jurisdiction of such matters, in the county in which the rights and privileges were denied. The petition shall be heard within seven days from the time it is made.]

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1987.

Approved April 14, 1987.

CHAPTER 41

(Senate Bill 477)

AN ACT concerning

Real Estate Brokers - Licensing - Continuing Education.

FOR the purpose of exempting a licensee on inactive status from complying with certain continuing education requirements;